PrepLadder- the online educational platform officially introduced at KMCT Medical College Central Library

PrepLadder, the online educational platform, has been introduced at KMCT Medical College Central Library on 2nd April, 2024, to enrich e-learning opportunities and bolster students' confidence with comprehensive resources in medical education. Dr. Vijish Venugopal, the principal of KMCT Medical College, officially inaugurated this exciting initiative.

PrepLadder provides meticulously crafted videos, study materials, question banks, and more to assist medical students in excelling in PG and other medical entrance exams, thereby enabling them to progress in their careers. This integration of technology aims to enhance learning outcomes and stimulate excellence in students' academic journeys.
